THE AMERICAS

furniture is popular with both residential and commercial clients, particularly those in the hospitality industry. POLaRT's furniture is made in Central Mexico with state-of-the-art molds and KraussMaffei polyurethane injection equipment, making it highly resistant to wear and tear. The pieces are then hand-upholstered, polished, and painted to give them old-world detail. 8406 El Gato Road, Laredo, TX, 956-765-2760; polart.us

LA LAMPE | BRAZIL

Founded in 1985, La Lampe helped pioneer the integration of lighting and architecture. It fashions design solutions and masterminds them from concept to installation. La Lampe likes to design items that create dreamlike environments rather than function solely as objects of décor. Thanks to the poetic and witty perspective of Studio Nada Se Leva designers André Bastos and Guilherme Leite Ribeiro, curators of the collection, the brand remains modern and fresh. Also contributing bold work are designers like Nika Zupanc from Slovenia, Mathias Hahn from Germany, and Italian master Vico Magistretti. Recently La Lampe pledged to showcase Brazilian talent, while it continues to forge partnerships with such international companies as Fontana Arte, Cassina Lighting, Artemide, and Vertigo Bird. lalampe.com
